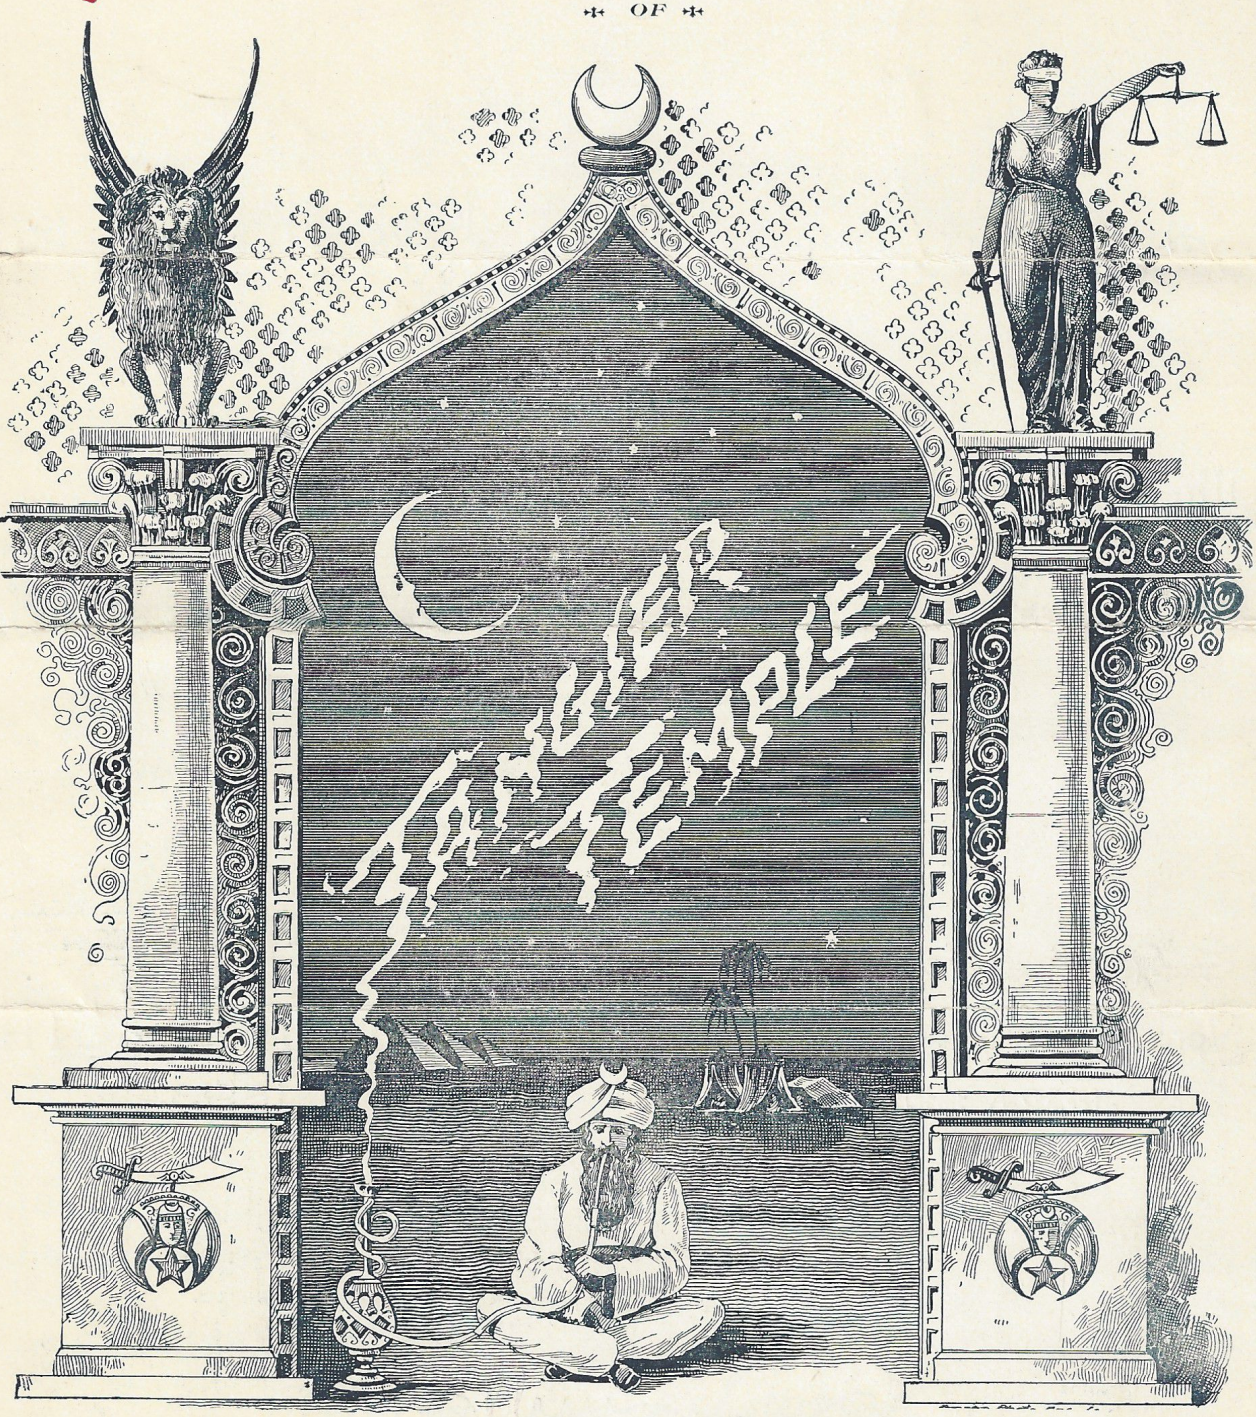
OF



We light our pipes and watch the soft gray
Smoke, that drifts like dreams away;
And debts and duties, duns and wives,
Slip undiscerned from our lives:
We light our pipes.

In memory of the Night Journey of the Prophet to Paradise [El JAMEH.] Chant for the repose of the WEELEE ET TUSHTOOSHEE.

See the Gorgeous Procession! The Wonderful Illuminations! The Zikers Playing! And hear the Solemn Chanting! Let the Dervishes laugh and the Camels snort with glee. Loud let the Cymbals clash, and may Allah protect the Novice.

TRADITIONAL BANQUET

Bring your Fez and Claws.

By Amendment to our By-Laws carried December 23d, 1892, Sec. 1, Article 6, now reads: "The fee for conferring the Order shall be Fifty Dollars."

This will go into effect about Feb. 1st, 1893. All Petitions coming in before the same is approved will take the old rate, viz.: Thirty Dollars.

In merry Chorus well combined
With Laughter drown the whistling wind,
Mirth is within; and care without
May gnaw her nails to hear us shout.
